12:30-1:20

Lunch Speaker—Nancy Johnson “Myths of Women’s Madness on the Plains”

This presentation examines the myths of Plains women—as they are promoted by authors of fiction and history—and the realities, based on recently published works, including diaries and journals. Nancy will show that the lives of Plains women were as varied as the pieces of a crazy quilt and will focus on Nebraska women 1870-1900 .

1:30-2:20

Conferences Review—Sarah Warneke & Shelia Cermak

Sarah and Shelia will go over some of their favorite sessions from the MPLA, ARSL, and NLA conferences.

Passive Programming for Tweens and Teens —Rachelle McPhillips

Engage young patrons who hang out at your library with programs that run themselves. Rachelle Library will share several ideas libraries can adapt to year-round programming. These passive programs are great for libraries that have a thriving young adult program as well as those that are looking to reach out to tweens and teens but have limited time and money.
